

Who are We?

The Birmingham Children's Partnership brings together the local authority, the NHS, the police, the voluntary sector, the children's trust, plus children and young people themselves, in order to work together to improve the lives of children and families in Birmingham.

Spurgeons and Handsworth Association of Schools are working in partnership to help provide the Community Connectors role across Perry Barr Locality. We are both local charities that work for children and families.

Families and services can visit www.birmingham.gov.uk/covid19cypf for more information and our online Family Connect Form
